

About Us

The Annapolis Region Community Arts Council (ARCAC) is a registered not-for-profit charitable, community organization dedicated to encouraging and promoting the arts. Located in the beautiful Annapolis Valley, Nova Scotia; a place that artists seem to be naturally drawn to, ARCAC was founded by a group of artists in 1982.

Since the 90's, ARCAC has operated from ARTSPACE Gallery, a former Presbyterian Church on St. George Street in Annapolis Royal. The building houses galleries, workshop and studio spaces.

A dedicated volunteer Board of Directors, one paid staff member, and countless volunteers strive to maintain the original ethos of bringing the arts to rural Nova Scotia.

We are open to artists and non-artists alike, and welcome new members from Canada and beyond.

Thank you!

Supported through the Province of Nova Scotia and the Canada Council for the Arts.
